

East District Worship Committee Bursary Guidelines

General: The Worship Committee of the East District awards bursaries to support the development of church organists. The bursaries are given to persons who apply and best combine the qualifications set out hereunder.

Eligibility: To be eligible, the applicant will:

- a) be a member of an East District congregation
- b) have a background in piano and interest in organ, or have the approval of the committee

Qualifications:

- a) basic keyboard skills
- b) regular church participation and service
- c) accepted as a student by a qualified teacher or institute

How to Apply: Applicants should submit a personal letter containing an outline of musical achievements, church involvement, and other qualifications. In addition, the following must accompany the application:

- a) letter from current music teacher
- b) letter from pastor

All documents of application become the property of the Worship Committee.

Awarding: Applicants will be reviewed and selected by members of the East District Worship Committee, who will determine the number and value of bursaries awarded. Bursaries will be paid directly to a qualified teacher or institution.

Applications: All bursary applications, completed as specified above, should be sent to the chairman of the East District Worship Committee.
